

Series TV - Tandem valve

Tandem valves help to simplify pipework by replacing conventional valve and fitting combinations. It offers a low-cost alternative to multiport valves. It has a minimal deadleg and full drainability design. The drain or supply spigot is welded on behind the valve seat.

- Compact construction
- Minimal deadlegs
- Cost effective
- No weld in product area
- Horizontal spigot available
- Better drainability
- Pneumatic and manual options available
- Tailor made to meet specific requirement
- Available in forged and cast

